The “Tsigam” Village is located on the fringe of the desert, close to the border with Israel. It is inhabited by a group of Israelites who fled the turbulence of their country in search of peace and security. The village is built in such a way that it is completely isolated from the outside world, with no roads or bridges connecting it to the rest of the region. The inhabitants live in small houses made of mud and straw, surrounded by a fence that keeps out all outsiders. The village is surrounded by sand dunes, which make it difficult to reach by land or sea. The villagers are friendly and welcoming, and they are happy to share their culture and way of life with visitors.

The village is also home to the Sheikh Abada district, an important site for the Divine Liturgy. The prayer “It is eucharistic” is said by the priest before the celebration of the Divine Liturgy, and it is a moment of great spiritual significance for the villagers. The prayer is a reminder of the importance of the Eucharist, which is the central act of worship in the Christian faith. It is a time of communion with God, a time to reflect on the importance of the sacrifice of Christ on the cross, and a time to give thanks for the grace and forgiveness that He has offered to all who believe.

We pray over the person to be or-unanointed, we shall put holy oil on him. When we pray Psalms (99: 9, 3; 111: 5, 42) we read: “Holy and awesome is His name.” We read the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make us wise to salvation and glory in the Lord. He who is holy, He who is true, He who is holy has made us holy through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make us wise to salvation and glory in the Lord.
